

Documents to be required for Inter-country Adoption of Thailand

- (1) Copy of passport or identity card.
- (2) Copy of document certifying marriage or divorce (if any)
- (3) Medical certificate good physical health and mental stability indication of the applicants' infertility (if any).
- (4) Document certifying occupation and income;
- (5) Document certifying current financial status (dating back not more than six months).
- (6) Document certifying asset.
- (7) Four photographs of the applicant and spouse (if any) size 4.5 × 6 centimeters, applicants' children and home area.
- (8) Copy of law, regulation or document from relevant authorities of the country of domicile or residence of the applicant certifying the eligibility of the applicant to adopt a child;
- (9) Copy of law, regulation or document from relevant authorities of the country of domicile or residence of the applicant certifying the eligibility of an adopted child to enter into such country;
- (10) Letter of consent for adoption from applicants spouse or an approval order of the court in lieu of the spouse's consent (if any)
- (11) Copy of work permit for alien (if any) ; and
- (12) References from at least two persons.
- (13) A home Study Report which should include details of the applicants
- (14) A statement agreeing to supervise the pre-adoption placement, should the child granted probation placement for a period of at least six months and to forward bi-monthly reports to the Department of PUBLIC Welfare of Thailand.
- (15) Confirmation from COMPETENT AUTHORITY or concerned authority that after the adoption is finalized under the Thai Law, it will also be legalized under the concerned Law of the applicants' country when due.
- (16) Application for Child Adoption which the applicants have filled out.
- () Police check / Criminal Record

- (17) Extract of the applicant's divorce and commitment to give custody of their children.
(if applicable)
- (18) In case the applicants contact the private agency, it is necessary to obtain documents as follow:-
- a. A photo-copy of up-to-date of agency.
 - b. Statement from the Government Social Welfare Department in that particular country authorizing the agency to handle the inter-country adoption applications.

Documents which are not in English language must be attached with English or Thai translation and be signed by the translator. All required documents from No.(1)-(18) (original and translation) have to be certified by the Royal Thai Embassy or Consulate in that particular country.

In case of domestic child adoption, documents (1) to (12) shall be certified by an embassy or consulate of the country of the domicile of the applicant, In case of international child adoption , documents (1) to (12) shall be certified by Thai Embassy or Consulate in the country of the domicile or residence of the applicant together with the following document from competent authorities, or authorities designated by the government, of the country of domicile or residence of the applicant, to from a child welfare organization of such a country by the government to manage the international child adoption a child; 1) document certification and suitability of the applicant in adoption a child; 2) document declaring the duty to supervise the taking care of the child and to report the progress such taking care of the child to the Director-General of Department of Public Welfare every two months; 3) report on the living and family condition of the applicant; and 4) in case the applicant resides in the country other than a country of domicile, document certifying such residency and period of not less than six months for taking care of the child before adoption.

Completed application and supporting documents shall be submitted to the Department of Public Welfare Ministry of Labor and Social Welfare the Social Welfare through an authorized private child welfare organization or relevant authorities of the country of domicile or residence of the applicant.